Liberal for Life: If you were arrested for being a religious liberal, would there be enough evidence to convict you? Given that the Unitarian Church of Evanston is a religiously liberal oasis in a changing political landscape, how shall we then live? Service Led by Rev. Gregory Stewart.

Help Us Create An Effective Search Committee

Beginning this week, church members are able to nominate fellow congregants to serve on the Ministerial Search Committee and help to choose the churches next settled minister. The seven-member committee will begin its work in March and will oversee the process of defining what were looking for in a minister, presenting our church to ministerial candidates, and finding the best fit for our congregation. Operation Activation

When I'm feeling anxious, stressed, or worried, a few deep breaths can make a world of difference. As part of my spiritual practice, I've been using a body scan meditation every morning, which begins with three long, slow, deep breaths - in and out - followed by a scan from my toes to the top of my head, returning me to the moment. The resonant voice of the meditation suggests life-changing results if I do it every day for eight weeks. I'll let you know how that goes. Regardless, being present in the moment is a practice I want to cultivate. This is the only moment there is and starting here is the best way to move forward. [For More]

Dear UCE Members and Friends,

The Earth-Centered Spirituality Group of UCE would like to welcome anyone interested in attending to a Foundations Group for the next six weeks. We hope also to enrich our fellowship through greater aquaintance with each other. To that end, we will be holding a series of six consecutive weekly meetings on Sundays in January and February to get the process going and moving quickly! This group is for:

Who: UCE Members and Friends who want to be a consistent part of Earth-Centered spirituality group.
What: Attending 6 Sunday meetings where we get to know each other by participating in group sharing/ritual.
When: Sunday mornings from 10:30 to 11:30 (ish) --January 13th through February 17th.

Emergency Overnight Shelter Volunteers Needed

Our hosting dates are
January 13 through January 26.

Are you wondering what you can do to help those who have no warm place to return to at night? UCE is one of the 6 faith communities in Evanston providing warm shelter to those who are homeless this winter. We've done this in past years, and those who stay with us are always very appreciative.

Volunteer shifts include:

- The 8-9:30PM - Set Up Cots; Prepare warm drinks, greet guests and help them get settled.
- The 9PM-7AM - Spend the night. Generally, they have a chance to sleep, and a cot or chair is always available. They are there to assist the paid overnight staff person.
- The 6AM.-7:30AM - Help to waken guests, move or fold up cots, clean up, serve hot drinks, and help the guests feel welcomed as they leave.

Here is a link to sign up:

If you haven't been to a training, please contact us and we'll arrange to have you trained. If you have questions please contact Toni Rey at 847-847-7644. We need you and the homeless people in our area need you. Please help UCE offer this service to those who need it in Evanston.

Due to the generosity of First United Methodist Church, covering the additional costs, the Emergency Overnight Shelter will be open EVERY night through February. This means that during UCE's weeks to host, January 13-26, we will need volunteers every night. Please sign up to help if you haven't already under the volunteer tab on our website. Letter-Writing for Amnesty International
January 20 - After both Services

The Peace and Justice Committee invites everyone to the back of the sanctuary to write letters for the Write-for-Rights Campaign sponsored by Amnesty International.
This campaign is designed to "put pressure on governments, leaders and decision-makers…to make change happen – releasing activists, convicting torturers and changing abusive laws." Each participant is asked to write at least two letters, one to the person or government in authority who can make change happen and the other to the person or group being targeted for their activism.

This year Amnesty is supporting "some of the millions of women rising against injustice – and paying a heavy price as a consequence. Your words really can change their lives." If you wish further information, please visit Amnesty's campaign website at https://www.amnesty.org/en/get-involved/write-for-rights/ .
Background information and sample letters, paper and envelopes will be provided. Donations to help pay for stamps would be appreciated. Please join us.

Social Action Sunday, January 20

In lieu of the Chicago Women's March, the march organizers are encouraging people to take local action that weekend. On January 20th, there will be several actions you can take in the sanctuary after services: sign letters to Amnesty International, sign up to join the MLK Day event, send a card to a prisoner, join the Black Lives Matter vigil. Let's continue to move forward in solidarity.

We Need Your Input: Religious Education

This month we have two opportunities—Affinity Groups—to discuss our lifespan religious education program. Please make every effort to attend if you want to help shape the future of this essential ministry to children, youth and families.

The first Affinity Group meets Sunday, January 20 at 12:15 p.m. This meeting is especially for LRE teachers, parents, and committee members.

Post-it notepads will also be available to write on. The format is similar to a historical timeline often used by interim ministers. Please consider how you can contribute to this visual and verbal representation of our congregation, both then and now.

REAL Meals Are Back - Sunday, January 20 - 1pm

Space will be limited for this one, so reply early to Betty Walker, blw35@comcast.net to make your reservation. Also, check out their menu on line to whet your appetite and make ordering easier. Join P&J to Discuss the Proposed UUA Statement on Democracy
Tuesday, January 22 - 7pm

Come help frame our response to the UUA's proposed statement of conscience on the Corruption of Democracy. We'll review the current draft of the statement and suggest changes to it at a meeting to be held at church on Tues, Jan 22 at 7pm.
According to the statement, "The Nation's founding documents expressed inspiring ideals of democratic equality. However, value gaps have undermined our country's prospects for living the promise of true democracy: whites are valued more than people of color, men more than women, the rich more than the poor."
The statement talks of our failures both as a Nation and as a religious denomination. It suggests solutions ranging from expanding ballot access and ending gerrymandering to making the UUA's collective decision-making process more democratic. The statement will be voted on at the denomination's General Assembly in June.

Active Shooter Training at Immanuel Lutheran Church, January 26 - 1pm

Some of the deadliest attacks we have experienced in recent years have been in houses of worship. It is a sad reality of our current society. Immanuel Lutheran Church, 616 Lake St., Evanston, will be hosting a workshop on Saturday, Jan. 26 at 1:00 PM. Sgt. Pat Wosniak of the Evanston Police Department will lead the session. It lasts 2-3 hours and focuses on the importance of developing emergency preparedness plans, with specific information on active shooter situations, and ideas for how your congregation could work with the EPD to develop plans specific to your setting. It is aimed at clergy, office staff, and those involved in usher and greeter ministries or who otherwise play a role in security of the congregation. Please RSVP so we know how many to plan for. My contact info: Pr. Keith Fry, pastor@ilcevanston.org or 847-864-4464.

UCE Community News

REAL Library

Three new books of note are now at the Racial Equity Lending Library.

The Color of Law: A Forgotten History of How Our Government Segregated America by Richard Rothstein brilliantly describes the unconstitutional actions of our government during the 20th century, which put in place the ghettos we find today in our cities. This book is a selection of the Nonfiction Book Club at UCE.

A More Beautiful and Terrible History by Jeanne Theoharis discusses the intentional distortion of civil rights history and reveals a fresh understanding of our present situation. Suggested by Ms. Betty Ester, Evanston activist.

Lastly, Race and Reunion : The Civil War in American Memory by David W. Blight is a winner of the Frederick Douglass Book Prize and "shows what was remembered, what was forgotten, and why." This book was suggested by Rev. Wiviott after her memorable sermon last Memorial Day.
