

RACIAL HISTORY OF EVANSTON BUS TOUR AND INTERFAITH CONVERSATION

Sunday
February 5
2 – 6 p.m.

The tour begins & ends at:
Beth Emet – The Free Synagogue
1224 Dempster Street, Evanston

Free and open to the public

Join the Interfaith Community Coalition for Reparations for a bus tour exploring Evanston's racial history. We'll visit places of importance to the Black community, learn about prolific residents in Evanston's Black history, and discuss Black resistance to systemic racism in the city. An interfaith community conversation will follow the bus tour.

ONLY 55 TICKETS AVAILABLE!
Register soon at bit.ly/EvanstonBusTour
or scan the QR code

REPARATIONS
RECONCILIATION & REPAIR

Evanston's Interfaith Community Joins in Support of Reparations, Truth & Healing