

Unitarian Church of Evanston Endowment Fund COMMUNITY PROJECT/CONGREGATIONAL SUPPORT GRANT APPLICATION AND INSTRUCTIONS

Before you begin: This pdf version is for those who cannot access the Word version. In that case, please print this form and complete by hand, scan and return.

Who may Apply for an Endowment grant?

Only a UCE group (e.g., committee, task force, program, or board) may apply for an Endowment grant. The UCE group may, however, apply on behalf of a community organization that meets at least some of “Criteria for Granting to Community Based Organizations.” The Fund does not make grants to other private foundations, donor advised funds, or individuals. The Fund will not sponsor charity, corporate, or sports events; nor will it purchase tickets or tables to fundraising events, or support political campaigns or lobbying efforts. Outside organizations should be recognized by the Internal Revenue Service as a non-profit organization under 501(c)(3) or have a fiscal sponsor that is an organization under 501(c)(3).

What kinds of projects are permitted to be funded by Endowment grants?

Article 4, section 2 of the UCE Endowment Fund bylaws specifies that funds may be used for one or more of the following purposes:

- a. Supporting special church projects not anticipated in or provided for by the operating budget;
- b. Supporting the communities in which the Unitarian Church of Evanston resides and operates, including spiritual, education, and economic needs;
- c. Enhancing, repairing, supplementing, or improving the Unitarian Church of Evanston’s building and property;
- d. Funding scholarships and grants to Unitarian Church of Evanston members and staff for education and training;
- e. Supporting the wider mission of Unitarian Universalism.

What are the deadlines for submitting a grant application?

The Endowment Fund’s fiscal year is July 1-June 30. The deadlines for submitting applications are: May 31 (applications for the following fiscal year), October 31, January 31 (if funds remain available).

Completed applications with itemized budgets should be sent to: endowment@ucevanston.org. Each application is reviewed first by the Endowment Committee and referred to the Board of Trustees for final funding approval.

How will the funds be released?

Funds based on the itemized budget and/or firm bid or invoice, if applicable, will be transferred from Endowment to UCE. That money will be held in the church’s general fund, until the contact person from the UCE sponsoring team submits receipts (or invoice) and a request for payment to the UCE Executive Operations Director. Unused funds will be returned to the Endowment Fund.

Responsibilities of UCE sponsoring team contact person/grant recipients:

- Adhering strictly to the itemized budget in the approved application.
- Adhering to the timeline outlined in the proposal. If the timing changes for any reason, the recipient will inform the Endowment committee immediately. Grant funds are expected to be spent for the year awarded unless otherwise specified in the timeline.
- Communicating with members of the recipient organization and with the Endowment Committee about the application.
- Being responsible for requesting necessary funds for payment. To request funds, complete a Request for Payment form from the office, attach receipts/invoices, and submit the form and supporting documents to the Executive Operations Director (EOD).

Funds will only be released with direction and documentation from the grant recipient.

- Acknowledging / Publicizing the Endowment Fund’s support in two of the following ways as the source of funding for the project (e.g., newsletter announcement, Facebook, pulpit testimonial, Joy/ Concern, social media, posters/ fliers/ handouts, etc.) with the following credit line: “[Project title] is funded by the Unitarian Church of Evanston Endowment Fund.”
- Acknowledging Endowment as the source of funding at the beginning of any public programs related to the project.
- For projects with disbursements extending later than 6 months past initial approval, submitting an interim progress report to the Endowment Committee. Please answer: 1) Has your plan changed in any way? If so, how? 2) Is your project on schedule? If not, why not? 3) Is your project on budget? If not, why not?
- Within 30 days of the project’s final activity, submitting a final report to the Endowment Committee summarizing the project.
1) How did you evaluate the project? 2) What were the successes? 3) What were obstacles? And how were they overcome?
- Authorize EOD to return unspent funds to Endowment within 60 days following the completion of the project.

CRITERIA FOR FUNDING COMMUNITY PROJECTS

The following criteria will be used to evaluate applications

- Impact of specific project to be funded is significant
- Orientation toward social justice
- Commitment to anti-oppression in policy or practice
- Serves or represents (through direct service or advocacy) a population which experiences significant poverty, lack of basic human needs (housing, food, etc.) and/or significant discrimination or marginalization.
- Opportunities for UCE volunteer and community engagement
- Focuses on systemic, structural change, or, if social service provider, also engages in significant advocacy/policy work
- Has a UU identity
- Helps individuals make big changes in their lives (e.g., securing safe or permanent housing, overcoming trauma)
- Is small and not well funded (our help would be significant), but evidences staying power (has existed at least 3 years)
- Has UCE members who are or have been active with the organization as volunteers, staff, board members or beneficiaries of service
- Displays evidence of effectively meeting its goals and efficiently using its funding, either from UCE or others. This can be through an independent review service for non-profits, information the organization furnishes other funders, or other non-subjective source of information.
- Focuses on environment or environmental justice
- Provides a unique benefit to the local community
- Operates collaboratively with other organizations and/or exhibits understanding of intersectionality among peoples and issues
- Uses the arts in carrying out its mission; promotes joy and creativity
