

Unitarian Universalist
Advocacy Network of Illinois
Building Community for Justice

Unitarian Church of Evanston
1330 Ridge Ave
Evanston IL 60201

May 29, 2020

Dear Fellow Unitarian Universalists,

On behalf of the board of the Unitarian Universalist Advocacy Network of Illinois, I thank you for your generous financial contribution in support of our work together. Our advocacy work for equity, justice, and the environment depends on the gifts of organizations and people like you, both your financial support and your actions supporting our shared goals.

Thank you, too for sharing your Sunday offering with us in this COVID crisis. We are deeply honored.

Your contribution of $1,107 was received on May 14, 2020, check #55666, dated 4/30/20,

This letter serves as a receipt and acknowledges that no goods or services were provided in consideration of this contribution. Your contribution to the Unitarian Universalist Advocacy Network of Illinois is tax-deductible to the extent allowable by the law. UUANI is a 501c3 organization.

In faith,

Margaret Shaklee, president
UUANI Board

The mission of UUANI is to build power among UU congregations in Illinois in order to achieve meaningful, concrete, far-reaching results that put our UU values and principles into effective action. We will work collectively with each other and with partner organizations to create meaningful social change toward justice, beloved community, and a healthy planet.

